

A CLUB PRESIDENT'S FOCUS SHOULD BE ALL ABOUT YOUR PEOPLE

OPENING:

Ask Yourself: Do you have:

- A strong vision for your Club's future? ...
- An ability to put your own time in the perspective of today's needs.
- Effective communication skills?
- The courage to make unpopular decisions?
- Crisis management skills?
- Character and integrity?
- Make wise appointments with the Community Leaders?
- An ability to work with your Executive Board?

Are you willing to listen to people?

- “Ultimately, we need someone that is decisive, with really good intuition, and we need somebody who is willing to listen to different points of view and be decisive once... she decides to make that decision.”

- Let us look beyond “yes women” for advice. Look for the experienced Past Presidents for guidance.
- “ A Club President should have access to good information and exercise judgment wisely, so someone who thinks deeply about serious issues and who speaks clearly and uses language to educate, to inspire, and not to inflame,” “And I would say you need to have a group of people who are also wise, seasoned, and will give you advice and not be simply yes women, but be willing to challenge you at times respectfully.
- I believe “excellent temperament”, “integrity” and “discipline” are paramount.
- Values of the country that we want to defend need to be in place. Stick by America! We must really care about the people in our Club to motivate them to do the same.
